At the Theatres

THE BOISSON.

"THE MAN FROM LOST RIVER," the feature attraction today at this theatre, is a Goldwyn production presenting an all star cast. It pictures the trials of a powerful, patient hunter camp foreman in "standing by" the girl he loves while a weak neighbor of a millionaire marries her, neglects her and eventually proves his utter unworthiness. An act of providence strips all the characters in the play to their fundamental fitness or baseness, at the same time that wickedness receives its just reward.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, "Why Girls Leave Home," adapted from the famous stage success, with Anna Q. Nilsson in the leading role, will be shown.

THE PARAMOUNT.

"DOUBTING FOR ROMEO," with Will Rogers in the leading role, is the feature picture today. A funnier performance has never been given upon the screen. Among the various roles Will assumes in this picture are these: a lazy Arizona cowpuncher dressed in a theatrical costume's conception of western clothing, trying to land a job as cowboy in the movies; a "double" for a movie villain, getting a fearful drubbing from the red-blooded hero; a movie lover in a college hat suit paying desperate advances to a hyena-haired vamp on a pile of cushions; and, finally, in a wild dream, a "Romero" in a doublet and hose, capering passionately before the starry-eyed Juliet.

Monday and Tuesday Marie Prevost will be seen in "A Puritan Scandal."

THE ORPHEUM.

"LOVE TIME," the feature picture today, presents Shirley Mason in the stellar role. In "Love Time" Miss Mason has another of those pleasing and extremely palatable romances in which she excels—a romance of buoyant youth and loyal love in which appears no current of the underworld. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Wallace Reid, supported by Agnes Ayres, Theodore Roberts and other well known Paramount favorites, will be seen in "The Love Special."

News of Dunbar

Special to The Courier.

DUNBAR, Jan. 21.—The young people of the Methodist Episcopal Church last Tuesday evening organized an active Epworth League, and planned for strenuous work in its line during the remainder of the winter. It will meet regularly at 8:30 Sunday evenings and conduct devotional exercises prior to the regular public preaching service. There will also be regular monthly business and social meetings, at which in addition to the regular routine programs of a literary and musical character will be featured. In addition to the work in the church the committee of the league will be active in social and town-work departments, endeavoring to live up to the motto, "Look Up—Live Up." While the league will be known locally as the Senior League, it will be fully affiliated with the Epworth League—the young people's official society of the Methodist Episcopal Church organization with its millions of members, and accepting the Epworth Herald as its official organ.

The officers are: Superintendent, Samuel H. Jones; president, E. L. Shelbaer; first vice-president, Alma Grosch; second vice-president, Gladys McCluskey; third vice-president, Elsie Foreman; fourth vice-president, Mrs. Rachel S. Mitchell; secretary, William Duncan; treasurer, Richard M. Ketter.

While the league starts its life with a good membership, a drive will be made for new members, and it is hoped every young person above the age of the Junior League will be embraced in the membership of the Senior League.

Mrs. Mary L. Senior now occupies her own residence on Ferguson road near Ketter's, having moved therein Tuesday.

Mrs. Charles Bryner who moved to Cheat Haven from Pechin Hill several months ago, her husband having secured work there, was down visiting friends this week. She is well pleased with her new home and happy in the fact that her husband is busy.

Thomas Jose of Ferguson road is suffering from muscular rheumatism. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hughes and family of Beacon Hill enjoyed a sled ride to Tucker Run Sunday, spending the day with the former's sister, Mrs. Anna H. Gidding, who resides on the Hughes' home farm.

Patsy Colombo, the Pechin merchant, and several members of his family are confined to their rooms with a malady somewhat resembling influenza. During Mr. Colombo's illness, Anthony Manuel, a brother-in-law, is running his business for him.

The Gadsden Adult Bible Class, because of a series of meetings, to be commenced shortly in the Methodist Episcopal Church, will postpone its regular meeting this month and include in a "winter" picnic toward the last of February.

James Hardy, janitor of the Pechin school, who has been on the sick list for the past week, is able for duty again.

Mrs. O. W. Bolton has sufficiently recovered from her recent indisposition, and resumed her school this week. She teaches at Youngstown, in North Union township.

Isaac Harberger, the well-known fishtown farmer, was transacting business last week. He had good crops last year, except in fruit, and anticipated better ones this coming season. He has been keeping close at home preparing for next year's crops and living on groundhogs and prime home-killed pork.

Fourth Western Maryland Group Declines Cut

CUMBERLAND, Md., Jan. 21.—The maintenance of way employees of the Western Maryland Railway Thursday refused a 12 per cent reduction in wages and offered a counter proposition, calling for a 12 per cent increase over the present rates. This was the fourth of a series of conferences held here for the purpose of discussing wage reductions, and in every instance the men refused to countenance the reduction, while an increase of 15 cents per day was proposed by the employers and rejected.

The conferences began last Monday, when wage reductions were discussed by representatives of the railroad and the Brotherhood of Railroad Workers. On Tuesday the trainmen, engine-men and firemen were heard, and Thursday the maintenance of way employees, while representatives of the clerks will be taken into consultation today and those of the signalmen the early part of next week.

Head Ached and Body Ached.

There are various symptoms of kidney trouble—rheumatic pains, backache, sore muscles, stiff joints, and "always tired" feeling. Mrs. Geo. Morrison, E. Fairfield, Vt., writes: "My head ached and my whole body ached so I could not sleep. Foley's Kidney Pills gave me relief. They heal and strengthen weak, disordered kidneys and bladder and help them in their work of filtering the blood and casting out of the system the impurities that cause pain and disease. Prompt action—Advertisement."

Cokers Win League Game From Norwin by Single Point; Score is 31-30

Orange and Black Quintet
Shows Much Improved
Form on Floor.

FIFTH AVENUE TONIGHT

Minus "Chuck" Lowmyer, the center, and the only tall man on the Connellsville High School basketball team, the Cokers last night showed their fighting spirit and whipped the much larger Norwin aggregation, 31-30. Connellsville ran up a lead of eight points early in the first quarter but Norwin hung doggedly on and might have won in the last few minutes had the players timed their shots for goals a little better.

Connellsville played by far the best basketball the team has exhibited this year. The quintet worked to perfection in the opening quarter but towards the end of the half were sliding back into the old habit of bunching up and for a few minutes resembled an amateur girl team.

Coach Wine has been drilling his men hard and insisting that they "cut" for the basket when the ball is in their possession. With the final words fresh in their minds, the locals started off with a rush. Four field goals were scored in succession, McCormick getting a heavy share of these. The visitors out the lead to six points at the end of the half.

Things lightened up in the third period. Norwin settled down and had the score all but tied at 20-19. Then the locals pulled ahead once more and gained another seven-point lead. This again was cut down by Norwin players. In the final minute the Cokers had a scanty one-point margin. Solsson missed two fouls and thereby lost an opportunity to put the game safely out of reach of the Norwin tossers. The ball was in Connellsville's possession, however, when the final whistle blew.

Tonight the team plays Fifth Avenue High of Pittsburg.

The line-up:
Connellsville-31
Harmon F. Naylor
Solsson F. Lovette
McCormick C. Baymaley
Nixon G. Hudson
Welsh G. Kramer

Substitutions—Laurie for Nixon, Nixon for Welsh, Welsh for Nixon, Raley for Lovette, Rankin for Baymaley, Baymaley for Rankin.

Field goals—Naylor 5, McCormick 4, Harmon 2, LaRue 2, Solsson, Lovette, Baymaley.
Foul goals—Naylor, 16 out of 20; Solsson, 8 out of 17; McCormick, 5 out of 7.

Referee—Wall.

Of the 30 points scored by the visitors, Naylor was responsible for 26. Two team mates got one basket each.

There were a number of timeouts when players received severe bumps. McCormick and another man came together, the local boy getting hurt. He could not withhold his remarks, but after several minutes came back into the contest.

When McCormick was "down" and it looked as though he was finished for the evening, a fan remarked: "He'll be back in a little bit. You can't make these McCormicks quit."

"Chuck" Lowmyer was absent because of the death of his grandmother. McCormick went to center in his place, but was inches too short to ever imagine he could get the tip. The team looked every bit like the 1920-21 squad.

The Cokers have now won eight and lost four. The team seems to be hitting its stride and may land Fifth Avenue of Pittsburg, a jolt tonight.

Fans who haven't attended the high school games this year are missing some good playing. There are always a few thrills when the Cokers go on the floor.

The girls are scheduled to play Greensburg this afternoon.

Scottdale was easy prey for Bradcomb last night, losing 42-15 on the home floor.

The Man and Clothes

By Wright-Mezner Co.
A man is judged by the clothes he wears—a ill fitting, part cotton suit, a pair of shoes that are out of shape—makes a head bookkeeper spoken of by his associates as, "Oh, that's only Jim Harley, one of the boys at the shop." But dress Jim Harley in a real business suit, not necessarily the most expensive but of good material (that is where you want to watch your step), made in good style and made to fit, and common Jim becomes Mr. Harley, who has charge of the books.

Good clothes inspire confidence in the boss as well as in yourself.

Many a man has failed to receive due promotion and recognition because he was seemingly afraid of his co-workers—why, because he felt cheaply dressed and out of tune in general.

We all want just what we pay for and like to know just what we are paying for.

Honest clothes inspire confidence in the boss as well as in yourself.

The shop of a reliable clothier will represent the merchandise in its true form and it will be next to impossible to do this if he doesn't know his business thoroughly, so no matter what your taste in clothes better visit a reliable clothier.

Know a man by his clothes.

Some Ad-agraphs

January Clearance Sales always find the advertising office in a state of great trepidation.

To really do justice to all the store's values we'd have to buy the whole newspaper—and The Courier wouldn't stand for that. And yet we don't want you folks to miss a single one of the unusual buying opportunities that are to be found on every hand.

So— The thing we will do is this—

Select the very ripest, juiciest values that we know of. Tell you about them in the able columns left. And rely upon your knowledge of Wright-Metzler's Clearance values, gathered in years gone by, to remind you that there are many other money-saving items that can't, unfortunately, find their way in to the ads.

Particularly Recommended— are the Clearance Values in Knitwear. Everything is reduced One Half.

Tuxedo, Ueback, and slipover sweaters in the gayest, colors imaginable make up the collection and they're radically underpriced to make way for new Spring goods. The chilly days that Winter has been favoring us with lately are the best reasons we know of why you should take advantage of this offering.

After Inventory Jottings—

Much pleasing news comes drifting our way as a result of the store's after inventory revision of prices to conform with present day market conditions.

—Imported gloves are now re-priced 25c to $1.50 less per pair.

—dress goods are, on the whole, 25c to $1.00 less per yard.

—books have fallen from 85c to 75c (popular copyrights).

And because our buying was done before the recent advance in cotton prices we are preparing to give you some very distinctive values in the Annual White Sale soon to come.

The Call of Spring!

No less thrilling than the first crocus—this little bevy of Spring frocks that has found its way to the second floor.

The very latest thing is a cape dress—really two distinct garments for the price of one—which boasts the new basque waist and silk fringe trimmings around its hem and sleeves. The cape is distinguished for its clever taffeta collar.

Ohioyle.

OHIOYLE, Jan. 21.—Thomas Fleeson of Pittsburg was a business caller here yesterday.

Rev. and Mrs. Athay and son of Poplar Grove were visitors here Wednesday evening and Thursday.
